

The Carlson Law Firm Now Accepting Application for 2023 Carlson Cares Scholarship

High school seniors in Texas headed to a university or college in Texas for the 2023-2024 school year can apply for a $1,500 academic scholarship from The Carlson Law Firm.

This marks the firm's third year offering scholarships to deserving seniors in Texas.

Application submissions opened Jan. 17 and will run through April 14 until 5 p.m. Students can submit their applications on The Carlson Law Firm's website at carlsonattorneys.com/scholarship.

"One of the reasons we've continued to do these scholarships is because we want people, especially young people, to feel good about the work they've done to help others," Managing Partner Craig Carlson said. "Our team really enjoys learning about the positive impact these teens have had on their communities, and we always want them to know that we're rooting for them to succeed no matter where their journey takes them."

Last year's winners, Daylen Sauls, from Waco, went to Tarleton State, and Cole Ralston, from Holland, went to Texas State Technical College.

This year, the firm is encouraging seniors to use their creativity when submitting their applications. Seniors will have the option to choose one of three prompts. Students can choose to answer the prompt by either submitting a 2-3 minute video or writing a 300-500 word essay.

Further eligibility requirements include the following:

- Must be a high school senior for the 2022-2023 school year
- Enrolled in a Texas school
- Must be headed to a Texas university, college or trade school for the 2023-2024 school year
- The application must be submitted online through the scholarship form at carlsonattorneys.com/scholarship
- Submit proof of enrollment
- Submit an unofficial transcript

Prompts can be viewed on The Carlson Law Firm's website: carlsonattorneys.com/scholarship.
